

FRIDAY FOLLIES

November 1, 2002

Hey!

Instead of creating a brand new Follies this week, I thought I would share with you the invitation I created for my 50th Birthday Party last weekend.

I made this back during the summer when I was trying to learn the new PageMaker program. It was great practice, and I learned a great deal fooling with it. That is one of the nice things about doing the Follies every week....it gives me a chance to practice some of the things I have or am trying to learn. One of these days, I will send you some of the brochures I have done, and you will be able to "see" some of the things I used that I taught myself by doing the Follies each week....see there is a method to my madness...

At any rate. Enjoy! I sent this out to a few girl friends and had a lovely weekend. So much so, that I am thinking about making it an annual event...without the birthday, though. (I cut and pasted it, so I hope it turns out)

FRIDAY FOLLIES

Take care and remember... Life is short.

We need to make it a good one.

Grow in Peace and Wisdom.

Your Friday Friend,

Judi Godsey

P.S. NOTE OF CAUTION... 20 employees were fired from The New York Times here in Norfolk for sending lewd and indecent e-mails. (To my knowledge, none of the 20 were on our list - even though some of the attorneys who represent the company were!) I have asked each and every one of you on this list to tell me if these "Follies" place you in jeopardy, or even if they offend you. Please understand that they are intended to be light-hearted and are not mean-spirited in any way. If you are ever offended, do not hesitate to ask to be taken off the Friday list.

P.S.S. If you send a joke and I don't use it, it is because it has been used before, and I try not to repeat. Remember, I have been sending these since August of 1997. You tend to go through huge numbers of jokes that way.
Disclaimer: When anyone asks if I type all of these jokes, the answer is, "No!" I cut and paste one evening during the week (30 minutes, TOPS). I don't have time to sit, read, and retype jokes all day!
