Hey!

Another very busy week. I apologize for not having time after work to do "proper" Follies the last couple of week. It is just a very hectic time right now.

For one thing, our Grand Auction is this Saturday night. Each year we put on a silent & live auction which is also a sit-down dinner for over 500 people. This year we have over 700 items up for bid with 29 or so in the live auction. Some of those items include: a trip to "Paris" Las Vegas Resort Casino, THREE boats, a round trip to any destination on the East Coast on a private Lear jet, an autographed cowboy hat from Garth Brooks (the one he wore at the Enterprise concert this year in Norfolk), Redskins tickets, private wine tasting parties in your home, catered dinner parties for 50, a week in Aspen, Colorado, and on and on and on...

Last year we netted over $130,000. We are shooting for $150,000 this year, and I have no doubt we will make or surpass that amount. Not only is it a great fund-raiser, it is a GRAND party.

Items For Bid Include

- Baskets of Treasures
- Custom Painted Furniture
- Elegant Items for Your Home
- Trips and Evening Cruises
- Sporting Items
- Art
- And Much More...

Lots going on "politically" this week, but will have to catch you up on that later. Gotta run. Will try to do better Follies next week.

PS. NOTE OF CAUTION... 20 employees were fired from The New York Times here in Norfolk for sending lewd and indecent e-mails. (To my knowledge, none of the 20 were on our list - even though some of the attorneys who represent the company were!) I have asked each and every one of you on this list to tell me if these "Follies" place you in jeopardy, or even if they offend you. Please understand that they are intended to be light-hearted and are not mean-spirited in any way. If you are ever offended, do not hesitate to ask to be taken off the Friday list.

PSS. If you send a joke and I don't use it, it is because it has been used before, and I try not to repeat. Remember, I have been sending these since August of 1997. You tend to go through huge numbers of jokes that way.

Disclaimer: When anyone asks if I type all of these jokes, the answer is, "No!" I cut and paste one evening during the week (30 minutes, TOPS). I don't have time to sit, read, and retype jokes all day! If you would like to see a small portion of what I actually do, look up our homepage at www.chcs.pvt.k12.va.us and check out the Soundings section, a publication I produce four times a year which pretty much recaps most of what I am involved in.

And were you aware of this....

“TIME GOES ON

Believe it or not but 8.02pm on February 20 this year was a historic moment in time. It was not marked by the chiming of any clocks or the ringing of bells, but at that precise time, on that specific date, something happened which has not occurred for 1,001 years and will never happen again.

As the clock ticked over from 8.01pm on Wednesday, February 20, time was, for sixty seconds only, read in perfect symmetry 2002, 2002, 2002, or to be more precise - 20:02, 20/02, 2002.

This historic event will never have the same poignancy as the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month which marks Armistice Day, but it is an event which has only ever happened once before, and is something which will never be repeated. The last occasion that time read in such a symmetrical pattern was long before the days of the digital watch and the 24-hour clock -- at 10.01am on January 10, 1001. And because the clock only goes up to 23.59, it is something that will never happen again.

...Sign up today, please.

Enron executives in our very own country are living at or just below the seven-figure salary level. And, as if that weren't bad enough, they will be deprived of it as a result of the bankruptcy and current SEC investigation. But now, you can help! For only $20,835 a month, about $694.50 a day (that's less than the cost of a large screen projection TV) you can help an Enron executive remain economically viable during his time of need. This contribution by no means solves the problem, as it barely covers their per diem, ...but it's a start!

Almost $700 may not seem like a lot of money to you, but to an Enron exec it could mean the difference between a vacation spent sucking ass in DC, golfing in Florida or a Mediterranean cruise. For you, seven hundred dollars is nothing more than rent, a car note or mortgage payments. But to an Enron exec $700 will almost replace his per diem.

Your commitment of less than $700 a day will enable an Enron exec to buy that home entertainment center, trade in the year-old Lexus for a new Ferrari, or enjoy a weekend in Rio.

HOW WILL I KNOW I'M HELPING?

Each month, you will receive a complete financial report on the exec you sponsor. Detailed information about his stocks, bonds, 401(k), real estate, and other investment holdings will be mailed to your home. You'll also get information on how he plans to invest his golden parachute.

Imagine the joy as you watch your executive's portfolio double or triple! Plus upon signing up for this program, you will receive a photo of the exec (unsigned -- for a signed photo, please include an additional $50.00). Put the photo on your refrigerator to remind you of other peoples' suffering.

HOW WILL HE KNOW I'M HELPING?

Your Enron exec will be told that he has a SPECIAL FRIEND who just wants to help in a time of need. Although the exec won't know your name, he will be able to make collect calls to your home via a special operator just in case additional funds are needed for unexpected expenses.

YES, I WANT TO HELP!

I would like to sponsor an Enron executive. My preference is checked below:

Vice President (Higher cost; please specify which department)

President (Even higher cost; please specify which department)

CEO (Contribution: Average Enron janitor monthly salary x 700)

Entire Company

I'll sponsor an Exec most in need. Please select one for me.

* It's just that easy? do it now!

Please charge the account listed below $_____ per day and send me a

Keep in mind that the executive you have sponsored will be much too busy enjoying his free time, thanks to your generous donations. Contributions are not tax-deductible.
