

FRIDAY FOLLIES

Hey!

October 10, 2003

What a productive week! Electricity back on, getting caught up at work. spring and summer clothes swapped out for fall and winter clothes...HA! I love the simple things!

Good things happening...Man, what a difference a week makes....but then it is October...my favorite month of the year! There is just so much anticipation for the coming months in the air. I do not know what the temperature is like where you are, but it is PERFECT here - sixties in the daytime and low fifties or so at night. I have heard from some of you farther north that it has actually dipped into the thirties already...no thank you!

I also know everyone thinks this is football season, but the truth is, it is actually the best baseball all year long! This week's Follies are done in CHICAGO font in honor of the Cubs!

Go Cubs!!!

What a great sport! The sheer DRAMA of it all! Plus, you can watch and talk and pace and anticipate and relax and enjoy. I just love it this time of year...maybe even more than in the spring. For that reason, I have crammed many baseball photos into this week's Follies. If you don't appreciate Baseball, (Yes, I capitalized it) then these Follies might not be for you (grin).

Follies

Here are some of my favorite baseball shots...

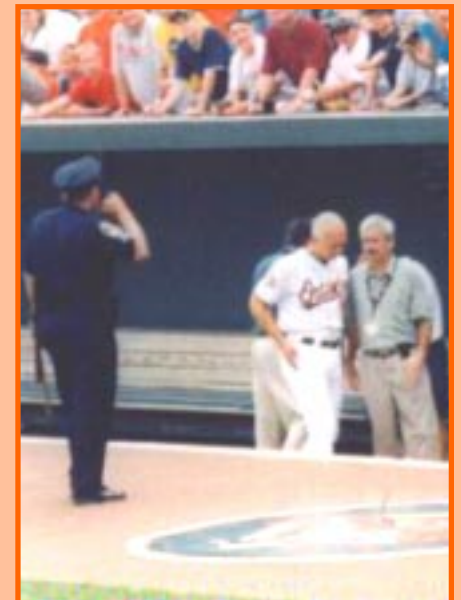

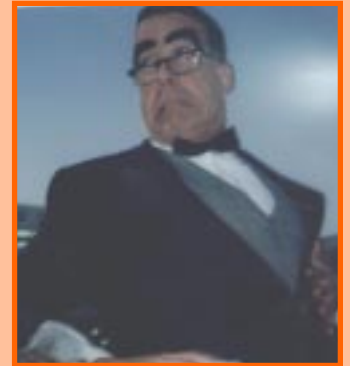

1. With RipTide, the mascot for the Norfolk Tides.
2. Myron Noodleman. Without a doubt, the funniest mascot I have ever seen.
3. Burrell's behind (Phillies) at batting practice.
4. Mr. Met at Shea Stadium.
5. Cal Ripkin watching reporters watching his every move.

6. Cal with security...look over the dug out...

7. Booge Powell at the Baltimore Oriole's stadium.

8. Harmon Killebrew..one of the strongest handshakes I have ever felt. Harmon is actually the guy they modeled the major league baseball icon after. It is his silhouette!

9. Benny Abiggaman (spell?) at his wedding.

10. Jeremy and the Babe.

11. Duty Noble Field, sacred ground, at Mississippi State University.

12. Tailgating - MSU Baseball style, John Grisham's favorite.

13. Me with the boys in the hood. I thought I was part of the team!

14 & 15. Bulldog fans.

P.S. NOTE OF CAUTION... 20 employees were fired from The New York Times here in Norfolk for sending lewd and indecent e-mails. (To my knowledge, none of the 20 were on our joke list - even though some of the attorneys who represent the company were!) I have asked each and every one of you on this list to tell me if the jokes that accompany these "Follies" place you in jeopardy, or even if they offend you. Please understand that they are intended to be light-hearted and are not mean-spirited in any way. If you are ever offended, do not hesitate to ask to be taken off the Friday Follies Joke List. PSS. If you send a joke and I don't use it, it is because it has been used before, and I try not to repeat. Remember, I have been sending these since August of 1997. One tends to go through huge numbers of jokes that way. Disclaimer: When anyone asks if I type all of these jokes, the answer is, "No!" I cut and paste one evening during the week (30 minutes, TOPS). Obviously I don't have time to sit, read, and retype jokes all day!
